WEDNESDAY, May 27th PROGRAM MEETING

from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

At Bonita-Sunnyside Library – Community Room
(4375 Bonita Road)

Randy Seaver on “Probate Records – My Favorite Record Type”

Probate records are Randy's absolute favorite record type for identifying and proving family relationships. This presentation describes the overall probate process, the different kinds of probate records, and how to find and obtain probate records in repositories and online record collections.

Randy Seaver is a 4th generation San Diegan. His ancestry is mainly colonial New England and Upper Atlantic, with some colonial German, French and Dutch forebears, and several 19th-century English immigrants. He has been pursuing his elusive ancestors since 1988, and has been online since 1992.

Randy is a former President of the Chula Vista Genealogical Society, and is currently the Newsletter Editor and Research Chair. He speaks to Southern California societies, libraries and groups on many genealogy subjects, and teaches "Beginning Computer Genealogy" adult classes at OASIS several times a year. He is a member of NGS, NEHGS, SCGS, SDGS, CGSSD and CVGS.

He blogs daily about genealogy subjects at Genea-Musings (www.geneamusings.com) and the Chula Vista Genealogy Cafe (<http://CVGenCafe.blogspot.com>).

President's Message – by Virginia Taylor

Change is good and we are going to have quite a bit of change this summer. First of all due to the renovation of the Civic Center Auditorium from May 1 to July 31 we will have to move our meetings. The May and July general meetings will be held at Bonita-Sunnyside Library. The dates and times remain the same.

Our June picnic at the Brock house will be on Saturday, June 27th. We have members who still work or are otherwise occupied on Wednesday and cannot take part in our activities. Hopefully having the picnic on Saturday, these people will be able to attend.

I know that changes cannot accommodate everyone but do hope that we will reach the ones who have not been able to attend in the past.

Another change we want to try is at the end of each general meeting we would like for the attendees to stick around for 30 minutes or so to talk to the others about their surnames and areas where their ancestors settled. Many of our members have found cousins just by talking to others. Let's start talking and see how many new cousins we can find. Let's start with our May meeting in Bonita.

Did you enjoy Donie Nelson's talk about her family stories? Would you like for us to do something similar? If so contact Susi Pentico and ask her to plan a workshop around family stories. I think that would make a great workshop.

Another sad note this month. One of our founding members, Nina Schultheis passed away last month. She has not been active for several years due to health issues but in the early days she was very active and is one of our Honorary Life Members.

Who's Due to Pay Dues?

Now that we are using the Wild Apricot service for our website, the program will keep track of our due renewal dates automatically. For example, if you paid your 2015 dues on December 12, 2014, you will get an email on or near December 12, 2015 reminding you to pay your dues. Be on the lookout for these reminders.

If you are curious about when your dues will be due, just fire an email to me (Karen Smith) at freelady72000@me.com and I will give you the date.

Report on 4/22 Research Trip to FamilySearch Library

The Field Trip to the Family Search Library on April 22nd resulted in research successes of various degrees for the fourteen participants. We allowed ourselves a little extra time to spend at the facility for this trip, meeting there just after 10 a.m. with a target completion time of 2pm. This provided for an extra hour of research compared to our former visits.

Library Staff had been alerted to our visit and they were ready to provide the professional grade assistance that is their hallmark. A few of our members had either never been to the facility before or had a long absence and were given a tour and introduction to the many records available. Some of us had prepared for the work, ahead of time, and were ready to wade into the library stacks or utilize the many premium web sites not typically available to us at home.

Comments overheard alluded to significant discoveries, to confirmation of data, to, well, let's just say, an elimination of a prospect. Nobody expressed disappointment in this excursion and several were already talking about our next foray, now tentatively set for Wednesday, 23 September to the San Diego City Central Library.

Research Group Meeting Review – 8 April 2015

There were 20 attendees at the CVGS Research Group on 8 April 2015.

In the first hour, Randy discussed and demonstrated:

* AncestryDNA "New Ancestor Discoveries" - Ancestry claims that "You don't need to research records or build a family tree -- AncestryDNA now transports you to the past." Um, really?

* Chronicling America newspapers

(<http://chroniclingamerica.loc.gov>) is a FREE website with historical newspapers from 1835 to 1922 at the Library of Congress, searchable by keywords, date ranges, etc. There is also a listing of all of the newspapers ever published in the United States from 1690 to recent times.

* GenealogyBank newspapers (<http://www.genealogybank.com>) is a commercial ($70 per year retail) website with several different collections - Newspaper Archives (1690-2010); Recent Newspaper Obituaries (1977-today); Historical Documents (1789-1994); Historical Books (1749-1900); Social Security Death Index (1936-2011) - FREE). There are 6,500 newspapers, and over 1.8 billion records, available on GenealogyBank. They can be searched by name, keyword, and date range. The full run of the San Diego newspapers are online there.

The second hour was devoted to answering questions, discussing research problems, and telling about research successes.

* Tameron's uncle was kicked out of the Los Angeles Police Department in 1938. She wants to find out why. She has family information, but no death date. She found his wife in the 1940 U.S. census living without him. A search in the California Death Index found he died in 1941 in Los Angeles. With the date, Tameron can look for more newspaper articles and perhaps an obituary for him.

* Jean wanted to know how to sync her Family Tree Maker database with an Ancestry Member Tree. The FTM Knowledge Base has explicit directions.

* Lorrie's ancestor was Isaac Stallings (1810-1893), migrating from North Carolina to Indiana to Iowa. We found his Find A Grave memorial, and Ancestry.com had a number of Suggested Records for him. But she doesn't have a subscription - we recommended using the computers at the FamilySearch Library in Mission Valley, or San Diego City and County public libraries.

* Virginia found a newspaper article with the 1911 marriage of her ancestors on MyHeritage.

* Diane G. shared her poster of her ancestor "Don Martin Casillas" who was a Spanish architect who built cathedrals in 16th century Spain and Mexico. She likes the MyHeritage smart matches because she can contact other researchers. Diane has done autosomal DNA tests on 23andMe for her four sons - the results say two are Britain/Ireland, one is Iberia, and one is French/German.

The next Research Group meeting will be Wednesday, 13 May 2015, at 12 noon in the Conference Room at the Chula Vista Civic Center Branch Library.

April 29th Program Review – Donie Nelson

The CVGS Program meeting on April 29th had 42 attendees, who heard Donie Nelson speak on "Family Stories: Secrets, Lies and Surprises."

Donie said that "you don't have to be a celebrity to have family surprises" and "Secrets, lies and surprises bring dull facts to life and bring generations together." She suggested that we embrace the black sheep in our family tree because they are colorful and human. Each surprise leads to a family story that can be shared over generations.

Yesterday's scandal may become today's exciting family story. Stories can bring your ancestors to life. All families have secrets, but they can reveal truths. Secrets are concealed by lies.

Donie told a number of her own family stories that illustrated her points. Her father, Raymond Nelson, had Swedish and Scots ancestry, and her mother, Corinne Valdez, had Spanish and Scots ancestry. Her father ran off to join the circus for five days, and worked for bootleggers on the upper Missouri River in the early 1930s. Her parents tell different stories about how they met in Trinidad, Colorado, but they eloped to Raton, New Mexico to marry.

Donie was named after her paternal grandmother, Donie Current, and Donie is short for Caledonia (there was a song about Caledonia).

One of her mother's ancestors was Antonio Valdez, an early 20th century politician in Colorado, whose grandmother was Mary Clorinda Romero who was literate and a Jehovah's Witness. Her mother's given name came from Clorinda.

Antonio Valdez was married three times, and there is a fascinating 40-page 1923 divorce document. This line goes back into the early 1800s, including a Jose Joaquin Young who rode with Kit Carson all over the West.

As Donie showed, there is some truth in every story, but sometimes it is difficult to sort out the story from the actual events. Truth makes your family history memorable, and your stories may inspire family members to become researchers.

May 2nd Saturday Workshop Review, by Susi Pentico

The May 2nd Saturday Workshop was successful with 27 of our members in attendance.

The first presenter was Randy Seaver on "Exploring FamilySearch," and concentrated on the Research Wiki, searching the indexed record collections, and browsing those collections that are not indexed and must be browsed. These are "digital microfilm" that are way-pointed and often in many "volumes" of unindexed books. He did an interesting presentation on working within the system and talked about Probate and Land Records availability on FamilySearch. The key is to find the Index volumes that tell the user a volume number and a page number, or a case file number. Some collections are easy to use, and others are more difficult. He had a three page handout on exploring FamilySearch, and a two page handout on how to find New York probate records on FamilySearch.

Shirley Becker talked about, "Overcoming Scotoma!" Very interesting talk that affects what we read when we are doing our research. How we perceive a sentence has a major affect on our outcome in our research. She also talked about many links we can use to help in our research. Shirley had a three page handout.

Bethel Williams then presented her topic on "What Are Southern States?" She asked if we knew what made a southern state. The answer wasn't what most expected. She shared much data on each Southern State and gave pages of URLs for us to use in researching. ALABAMA, ARKANSAS, FLORIDA, GEORGIA, LOUISIANA, MISSISSIPPI, NORTH CAROLINA, SOUTH CAROLINA, TENNESSEE, TEXAS, VIRGINIA make up the Southern States. URL's for each State. Her 40 page slide presentation with clues and ideas is available via email.

Susi Pentico presented on "Archives, Libraries and Societies." She mentioned a site by Mark Rabideau for Prussian/German Research. Fold3 is free for World War II records until May 15th. A research site for Kentucky was mentioned - on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/westkygenealogy>. She shared many URLs and some sites to show the extent of Libraries, Archives and Societies we are not even touching in our research. Her master site for information was: <http://www.google.com/search?client=safari&rls=en&q=state+archives+usa&ie=UTF-8&oe=UTF-8>. Susi presented a 3 page hand out of information and sites to search, reminding everyone that, when you start, to learn the History of the area, before the genealogy because you may miss key components not having the right historical information.

Ken Robison said, "With all these sites to see, when will we be able to do Research?" At least he said it with a big smile and eyes twinkling. Ken Robison won the door prize.

Caller Volunteer Needed

A volunteer is needed to be the first caller for our member roster. It is a simple job and all of the information will be sent via email so you will have a script. You will simply reach out to a third of our members (once a month) by phone to notify and remind them of upcoming events. Please consider doing this important job for our society! Please contact Membership Chair, Karen Smith (freelady720000@me.com).
